NOTIFICATION

Dear Authors!

Greetings from Delhi Library Association!!

DLA- a most vibrant professional association of India serving the nation since 1939 and committed to library development, education, research, consultancy, training, publishing scholarly journals, etc. The Library Herald- A quarterly scholarly peer-reviewed journal published by DLA since 1958 (Hybrid mode), which is indexed in major library and information science databases including UGC CARE List. The EC of Delhi Library Association in its meeting held on 26th April 2024, the highest executive body of the DLA has decided to charge a nominal processing fee i.e., 'Article Processing Charge (APC)' for every article published in Library Herald from Volume 62 (June, issue) 2024 onwards. The DLA has hired skilled and professionally trained 'Content & Language Editors'. The APC covers publishing, editorial, language editor, operational, peer-review, and other functional costs.

The processing fee for each article (solo or jointly written) will be of Rs. 6000 (Six Thousand) for General Category, Rs. 4000 (Four Thousand) for DLA Life Members & 100 Dollars for Foreign Authors.

The APC will only be applicable on the paper (s) which has been accepted for publication.

Articles published in a 'Special Issue' or a 'Dedicated Issue' will be exempted from APC.

The President of DLA, on a special case/request (s) may waive off the APC.
